

Figurative Language Pre Test

1. Which of the following sentences contains imagery?

- a. I told Charlie I had a lot of homework to do.
- b. "It was nice to see you again," Jacob said.
- c. I opened my eyes and looked around.
- d. I could hear the waves crashing against the rocks somewhere nearby.

2. Which is an example of hyperbole?

- a. The wind grabbed my arm.
- b. The water is shiny.
- c. I have a million things to do today.
- d. The vibrating washer caused the house to shake.

3. Which is NOT an example of hyperbole?

- a. I ate so much I might explode.
- b. The noise was so loud it shook the earth.
- c. The tree was so tall it may have touched space.
- d. The smoke smelled so bad it made my nose burn.

4. Read the sentences below.

Everyone was so happy when the bullies were expelled, but it was just icing on the cake when we found out that they had to repeat their eighth grade year! Serves them right.

What does the idiom ICING ON THE CAKE mean?

- a. A sweet substance used to cover a cake
- b. Something that makes a good situation even better
- c. A horrible piece of news
- d. Something that hurts someone else

5. Read the sentences below.

That stupid laugh of hers can absolutely drive everyone up the wall. We can't stand it!

What does the idiom DRIVE UP THE WALL mean?

- a. Makes crazy
- b. Makes happy
- c. Makes sad
- d. Makes a car drive vertically up a wall

6. "The stars will cry the blackest tears tonight."

- a. alliteration
- b. hyperbole
- c. onomatopoeia
- d. personification

7. "For the first time in forever, there'll be music, there'll be light."
- a. alliteration
  - b. hyperbole
  - c. simile
  - d. metaphor
8. Alice's aunt ate apples and acorns around August.
- a. alliteration
  - b. onomatopoeia
  - c. simile
  - d. metaphor
9. I am so thirsty, that my throat is as dry as a bone.
- a. alliteration
  - b. personification
  - c. simile
  - d. metaphor
10. She did not realize that opportunity was knocking at her door.
- a. alliteration
  - b. onomatopoeia
  - c. personification
  - d. metaphor

Figurative Language Pre Test Answer Key

1. Which of the following sentences contains imagery?

- a. I told Charlie I had a lot of homework to do.
- b. "It was nice to see you again," Jacob said.
- c. I opened my eyes and looked around.

d. I could hear the waves crashing against the rocks somewhere nearby.

2. Which is an example of hyperbole?

- a. The wind grabbed my arm.
- b. The water is shiny.

c. I have a million things to do today.

d. The vibrating washer caused the house to shake.

3. Which is NOT an example of hyperbole?

- a. I ate so much I might explode.
- b. The noise was so loud it shook the earth.
- c. The tree was so tall it may have touched space.

d. The smoke smelled so bad it made my nose burn.

4. Read the sentences below.

Everyone was so happy when the bullies were expelled, but it was just icing on the cake when we found out that they had to repeat their eighth grade year! Serves them right.

What does the idiom ICING ON THE CAKE mean?

a. A sweet substance used to cover a cake

b. Something that makes a good situation even better

c. A horrible piece of news

d. Something that hurts someone else

5. Read the sentences below.

That stupid laugh of hers can absolutely drive everyone up the wall. We can't stand it!

What does the idiom DRIVE UP THE WALL mean?

a. Makes crazy

b. Makes happy

c. Makes sad

d. Makes a car drive vertically up a wall

6. "The stars will cry the blackest tears tonight."

a. alliteration

b. hyperbole

c. onomatopoeia

d. personification

7. "For the first time in forever, there'll be music, there'll be light."

a. alliteration

b. hyperbole

c. simile

d. metaphor

8. Alice's aunt ate apples and acorns around August.

a. alliteration

b. onomatopoeia

c. simile

d. metaphor

9. I am so thirsty, that my throat is as dry as a bone.

a. alliteration

b. personification

c. simile

d. metaphor

10. She did not realize that opportunity was knocking at her door.

a. alliteration

b. onomatopoeia

c. personification

d. metaphor