The Lion's Lesson

King Lion looked at himself in the mirror. "What a (1) pretty (2) sight to see!" raved the lion. He was dressed in a (3) fresh robe with a long (4) train. He wore his (5) beautiful jeweled crown of shiny (6) stones. "My (7) subjects must have the (8) chance to see me looking every inch a king! We'll have a parade!
I'll (9) lead the way!" So, preparations moved (10) forward to (11) drive the lion (12) through his kingdom so that all the (13) animals could admire him.

When everyone (14) heard the news about the parade, they began to (15) practice making (16) their bows. As the parade approached a (17) little frog, the king commanded him to bow! The frog became (18) afraid and began to (19) break into a (20) thousand tears. "Your majesty," cried the tiny frog, "I assure you I am bowing. Look (21) closely!" As the king leaned (22) toward the frog to be (23) sure he was properly honoring him...PLOP! Down went the king into a ditch! Now every inch of this king was covered with mud! Is (24) there a lesson to be (25) learned here? Write an
(26) interesting tale that teaches this lesson in another way.
